FASHIONABLE BUSINESS WOMAN

All about women entrepreneurship

MS FER

First off, tell us a little about yourself?

I'm Ms Fer born and raised in the Bay Area (California) I'm an Actress, Entrepreneur, Model, Hip Hop Artist, Writer and Host.

What made you pursue a career in the music and entertainment field?

Well music and entertainment runs in my blood. My sisters and brothers do music and play instruments, my nieces and nephews do as well my father did and a host of other people in my family. It's something that just came to me one day after being around music. It clicked in my head and next thing you know I wrote a whole verse straight without even thinking. I became so well and fast at it I started writing for friends. As far as acting my homeboy T-Roy took me to one of his play rehearsals they then asked me if I wanted to be in it and I said sure so that's how my acting career got started. Shout out to T-Roy Dues Paid Entertainment he was actually the first person to put me in this music studio as well. That's my "brother" !!

How do you get yourself prepared for your acting roles?

I run lines in my head over and over of course but I put myself in that character's shoes. I try to understand how that person would feel, what would she do, how her face expressions and tone would be saying certain words. That's why it's best to read the full script if you can so you can get to know the character. If I cannot I can only assume how that character would be and I could be wrong or right.

How would you describe the music that you typically create?

I do hip hop music I don't want to put myself in a box as far as saying rapper because I can sing a little bit, I just haven't really showcased that yet. My music is fun I think it's some songs maybe female empowerment, I have a couple life songs in there as far as what I experienced. I can go anyway with it just depending on how I'm feeling at the moment of writing.

What's your favorite style of music?

I'm not sure how to answer that I'm going to answer both ways. My favorite style of music to listen to is r&B. My favorite style of music to do is hip hop.

How do you feel about how the women have stepped up in the music and entertainment industry?

I feel great about it I feel like we need more shine. I don't feel great about how they're putting themselves out there as far as showing everything. It's almost like watching porno on stage. I think females should be woman like not slut like let's not give men a reason to say certain things about us. I think it's also a show, i Candy, and lyrics are not really there. I think women need to stop worrying so much about their outfits and concentrate more so on lyrics.

What's your biggest accomplishment so far?

My biggest accomplishment is going viral on Nick Cannon's Wildn Out TV show. We hit 1 million views in 20 hours never done before on Wildn Out's page.

Before that it was me performing my music in Zanzibar, Africa on my birthday.

If you could work with any actor, who would it be and why?

I can't really choose I would like to work with Meagan Good. I feel we will mesh well together. I feel like she has good vibes and she's down to earth and we could play like sisters or best friends or something. Of course, I would like to work with Halle Berry, Will Smith and Denzel. They are black excellence at its finest. Anything they are in turns out to be great. They embody their characters.

If you could collaborate with any artist, who would it be?

I would love to collaborate with Lil Wayne and Beyonce. Lil Wayne has great cadence and lyrics. Beyoncé does too but she puts on a show. Beyoncé will make sure I'm popping attire-wise and performance wise. Both people is a guarantee hit song.

If you could go open a show for any artist, who would it be?

Lil Wayne, he's Hip Hop, more my type of fans and his crowd is ready to party.

If you were talking to a younger version of you, what advice would you give yourself?

Don't fall for the okie doke. Acknowledge the snakes and users and stay consistent.

You could pass on a nugget of wisdom to the next musical female generation, what would it be?

Be yourself don't let people tell you how to dress, what to say, and don't do sexual favors to anybody for opportunity. Your time will come, and it will be with the right person to help you and that's serious and willing to invest in your future. I will also tell them to let actions talk.

CEO WAAKEELAH

First off, tell us a little about yourself? Waakeelah is a natural born BOSS! She became a chief executive officer at the age of eighteen. She falls in love with the idea of having her own business. It was difficult sorting out what she really wanted to do. As she had a passion to guide and advise people. She decided to form a management business which consist of working with up raising independent artists of all kinds. Later, she meant CEO Mykel Myers who invited her out to his place of business. As time went by. She earned a high rank with Hot Block Magazine. She expressed her speaking skills on a set interviewing independent music artists. As her set earn a spot with Hot Block TV, she climb her way to meeting major artists. This young lady resume in the late music industry helped her earn two awards with Hot Block Magazine. As the late Mykel Myers given her space to grow and shine. She now has established her own. This business is a combination of different networks via independent and major companies.

What made you pursue a career in the entrepreneurship? A desire to lead pushed her right into leadership.

What do you think about the rise of women's entrepreneurship? We can raise higher with the beauty of being humble. Learning to overview thing's as they may come is greatness.

Who are some people that influenced you to become an entrepreneur? The Creator of all truths. This was seal within me. All praises to the Most High.

WAAKEELAH

What do you think about the internet's impact on helping entrepreneurs to move their products in today's time? You have to observe loyalty. There are a lot of resources and I'm grateful.

How would you describe the products you typically create? I operate on energy. To have a great mindset will help you create beautiful things.

What's your biggest accomplishment so far? Being a mother with different ideas to earn income.

If you could work with any entrepreneur, who would it be? And why? I have not yet to find them. Let's create soon!

If you were talking to a younger version of you, what advice would you give yourself? Be an overseer focus and study to create your biggest reality.

You could pass on a nugget of wisdom to the next generation of entrepreneurs, what would it be? Study and get to know who you are. You are the one who can form and create your own ideas into the reality that fit your needs. Have a fresh mind set and stay focus on one task at a time for a better creation.

INTRODUCTION TO P EAT LYRIKZ

P EAT LYRIKZ

P Eat Lyrikz is one of the hottest artists/songwriters in the Southwest Georgia area. Known for his versatile musical genius as it relates to composing, Lyrikz is a triple threat in the music industry - singer/songwriter/producer.

Born in the small town of Albany, Georgia, Kentrell "P Eat Lyrikz" Peters has always used music as a way to express himself. Singing since the young age of seven; he composed his first full single when he was just sixteen years old. At the age of seventeen, Lyrikz started an R&B group named Amor. The group consisted of four members; Lyrikz was one of two lead singers.

In 2004, Lyrikz started working on his first solo album that he later named, "Lyrikz Portfolio." Lyrikz found his inspiration to make music in life's obstacles. It was through the trying times in his life that he realized how important and strong his passion was for making music to help get through everyday life. His music transcends through the barriers that keep people divided and his style fosters unity and synergy amongst all different cultures backgrounds.

MAGAZINE P Eat Lyrikz

In 2023, Lyrikz's skills took him to another level in his career. After meeting Delendra TarsaVena, the CEO and Founder of The OnPoint Channel and Network dba The OnPoint Network TV, they began collaborating on music. Delendra immediately recognized a uniqueness to his voice and asked him to do the voiceover to the network's original documentary, Becoming Wine, which premiered April 1, 2023 in Dothan, Alabama. After realizing how well they meshed, Delendra asked Lyrikz to become the network's Managing Music Partner. The company is now working on developing new content including a TV show, Video Vibes, which showcases R&B and Hip Hop artists.

PEat

Lyrikz

Lyrikz is a lover of Jah, people and music. It is his mission to use positivity, respect and love to bring people together through his music. Currently, he spends most of his time songwriting, composing music and helping his label mates learn the industry and propel their careers to new heights.
